LARGEST CIRCULATION

NUMBER 157

TRAIN ROBBED NEAR POTEAU

Spiro, Ok., Oct. 4.—No. 4 passenger train, northbound on the Kansas City, Southern Railway, was held up by four masked men at 7 o'clock tonight. The robbers boarded at Poteau at the crossing of the Kansas City Southern and Frisco tracks just north of Poteau, and as the train was starting up a man ran up yelling to the passengers that robbers were aboard, but it was taken as a jest.

When the train reached Tarby Prairie, about three miles north of Poteau, the train was stopped by a shot. The express safe was blown open and the mails rifled. The conductor notified the passengers that the train was being robbed, but the robbers did not come through the train.

After being stopped for about ten minutes a freight train overtook the passenger train and was immediately sent back to Poteau for officers. Before it returned the passenger train pulled out for Sandy Point.

No one was injured in the hold-up. The men appeared experienced at the business and took their time in doing the work. They were seen by passengers marching some men away from the train and others were seen walking around the train.

Much Money Was Aboard.

Fort Smith, Ark., Sept. 4.—That the train held up near Poteau carried a large amount of money is admitted by local officials, who, however, refused to give any figures. The robbers placed their loot in a flour sack, which they had brought with them. The loot filled the sack. It is known that twenty-six pieces of registered mail are missing. A package containing $5,000 in various financial papers the property of a Heavener, Ok., bank also is missing. The train robbed to-day usually carries the monthly receipts of the company's offices all along the route from Port Arthur, Tex., to Kansas City.

BULGARIANS CROSS TURKISH FRONTIER

London, Oct. 5.—Wires from the near eastern capitals tonight were somewhat ominously reluctant or altogether silent. A brief dispatch announcing that railway traffic had been stopped between Constantinople and Mustapha, Pasha and Dogcaghat, and confirmation of the news that Bulgarians had crossed the Turkish frontier, was practically all the information of a military nature received in London today shows that the telegraphic censorship is active.

One hopeful sign, however, is the fact that diplomatic relations still remain unbroken and apparently no ultimatum has been delivered or a declaration of war made. Therefore diplomacy still has time to act in the interests of peace.

At present the European negotiations looking to peace are centered in Paris, but it still seems to be undecided whether action in this direction shall be taken by a concert of the European powers as a whole or by Austria and Russia, as representatives of Europe. It is believed difficulty is being found in reconciling the views of the situation held by Austria and Russia, and, although a more hopeful opinion of averting war prevailed today, it is believed that unless the Powers act promptly it may be too late to prevent an explosion.

NOTES FROM THE LABOR WORLD

Springfield (Mass.) telephone girls have organized a union.

Members of the San Francisco fire department demand a 12-hour day.

One hundred thousand persons could find work in New York if they would go into domestic service.

The salary of President G. W. Perkins, of the International Union of Cigar-makers has been increased from $30 to $40 per week.

Forty-four new agreements have been made by locals affiliated with the International Association of Machinists during the last year.

It is said that Great Britain has more women workers in proportion to its population than any other country. There are 616,000 dressmakers.

In the year ending August 1, 1911, nearly 60,000 persons sought and obtained employment through the medium of the Three-State Employment bureau of Minneapolis, St. Paul and Duluth.

Industrially, Belgium is the most highly developed country in Europe. It has at the present time a population of about eight million, of which 1,250,000 persons are engaged in industrial pursuits. 300,000 of them are women.

Leeds (England) garment workers report that less than ten years ago they worked steadily from 7 a. m. to 9 p. m. for 80 cents a day, but since their organization they work from 8 a. m. to 6 p. m. and earn a minimum wage of $1.50 a day.

For death, sick or disability insurance national unions reported disbursements of $7,829,121 in 1908, including $5,164,385 for death of members, $832,700 for temporary disability, $198,618 for superannuation, and $892,321 other miscellaneous benefits.

In every state in Australia, as well as in the commonwealth, there are now two parties only, Liberal and Labor. In the commonwealth and in the states of New South Wales and West Australia the Laborites are in power, while in the other states the Liberals have at present a controlling majority.

Bricklayers and Masons Union No. 1 of Winnipeg, Manitoba, is now the largest local union in Canada.

Thirty-seven states have employers' liability laws, in 17 of which the old common law of "fellow servant" has been abrogated and in seven others modified, and in several states have modified the common law defense of "assumed risk" and "contributory negligence."

There are six million girls working in the factories, shops and stores in the United States, according to Miss Alice Henry, of Chicago, editor of Life and Labor. The girls range in age from 14 to 24 years, and their average wage, according to Miss Henry's figures, is about $6 per week.

France, according to Consul General Alphonse Gaulin, stationed at Marseilles, has probably the most comprehensive co-operative societies of any country in the world. There are co-operative stores and organizations of every kind for aid of the toilers, its members. The movement has grown immensely in recent years.

AN OUTBURST OF THE MAYOR

HALF A PAGE OF ABUSE OF THE
NEWS, BUT DODGES POINT AT ISSUE.

After two weeks of laborious preparation and boasting, Mayor Ratliff takes up some three or four columns of space in the Star-Democrat in an attack on the News regarding its criticism of the commissioners in passing an ordinance forbidding a paper from advertising or printing circulars for wrestling matches and kindred sports which are forbidden by city ordinance. However, he does not touch side or bottom of the question. The News charged the commissioners with cowardice in passing such an ordinance in the endeavor to prevent these exhibitions when they lacked the nerve to stop them by force. I have not changed my position in the matter, for as I said in my former editorial they seemed to think it easier to handle the papers than the wrestlers. At all events the police never put in an appearance at the last one until it was all over. Furthermore, one of the principals intimated to us at the time that they were well enough satisfied with their deal with the "pea nut" officers of Ada, as they called them. Since the police department is under the absolute control of the mayor, he must bear most of the odium for allowing the law to be violated without any effort to prevent it. He does not defend himself from that part of the criticism, and he shows better sense there than anywhere else.

Not only was that ordinance an admission of weakness, but it was also just a means of throwing dust into the eyes of the element opposed to such exhibitions. It was designed to satisfy them and prevent their seeing the larger violations of the law. He was smarting under a former criticism of this paper and intended this as a slap in the face. It is not the force of a blow that gauges the insult behind it. The News resented this.

Meet your friends at our Soda Fountain just as a hotel keeper or merchant would have done had the ordinance forbidden them having any dealings with these men when in the city. It was an unwarranted attack on the News. That is all there is to it.

Rat accuses us of having a spasm. Well, it was certainly not due to an attack of delirium resulting of imbibing too freely of white mule. Can he say the same in his own case? It has every mark of being inspired by that joy giving drink. At all events that is the most charitable view one can take of his outburst.

Rat has always been a great man for newspaper notoriety as the readers of this paper can testify from his frequent efforts in the past. It is as the breath of life to his nostrils, he considers himself a literary genius, and criticism is something that is galling to his super-sensitive nature, and lately he has come in for much of the latter and very little of anything else so far as the better element of the town is concerned. No one has heard of any special kick on his administration from the gamblers and bootleggers, but as for the better element, it is thoroughly disgusted with his hypocrisy and duplicity. We have received more commendation on the editorial regarding this weak-kneed ordinance than anything in a year, and we are perfectly willing for the people to pass on the matter.

He speaks of our fondness for "filthy lucre" and how hard it is to tear us away from the public teat. Well, one thing is certain, we have met all our debts like men ever since we came to Ada, but Rat cannot say as much. We have carried a good part of his bill for his campaign for county judge over two years and can't get a cent out of him. The News also has his bill for his campaign for his present office, but it looks as if it will have to carry that also for some time. The question arises, is Rat a puny weakling unable to make a living unless he is sucking the public teat, or is he just a common dead-beat? It would certainly afford us pleasure to be able to state through these columns that he has finally realized enough from his present office to settle up.

The mayor evidently missed his calling, he likes to see his stuff in print so well that he ought by all means to have established a paper in some place about the size of Fitzhugh or Vanoss, about his calibre, so that he would always have had ample opportunity to give the public the benefit of his intellectual efforts. The people elected him to run the city's business, but he seems to think he is to run a literary bureau in connection.

In his effort to throw the public off the scent and create prejudice against the News, he asserts that an effort was made to hold the city up for $1,800 for publishing the charter finally coming down to $1,500, then to $1,000 and gradually falling. This is a deliberate and malicious lie and none knows it better than he, for he was the first member of the council with whom we had any conversation concerning the matter before it was considered by the council as a body.

The contract the News had with the council—and the mayor was a member of that body at the time it was made—read as follows:—

"The News Publishing and Printing Co. agrees to do the printing and publishing for the City of Ada for the period of twelve months at the following rates, to-wit:—

"In the Evening News at 4c per line per insertion set in 8 point type and at comparative rates set in any other points of type required; all matter so used in the evening edition of said paper to be printed in the Weekly News free of charge.

"The acceptance by the city council of the above printing proposal shall constitute the Ada Evening News the official organ of the City of Ada."

Although that is the plain wording of the contract, and if the council had run the charter three weeks in the daily, it would have amounted to something like $1,500. However, the News asked no such figure, offering to cut the bill to less than half of what the plain wording of the contract called for, which is considerably less than half the rate paid by the business men of Ada. The matter was finally settled by running the charter three times in both daily and weekly.

Swihart Fast Recovering.

Dave Swihart, the man who was stabbed seven times in the back by Berry Schumsher, Saturday week, was brought to this city last Saturday and taken to his home south of this city.

Swihart was taken to the Post

Graduate Hospital in Oklahoma City immediately after the cutting and has since been under the care of Dr. W. E. Dicher.

The attending physician stated that Swihart may be paralyzed for life, since certain tissues of the spinal column have been severed by one of the wounds. The wound over the kidneys is healing rapidly.—Holdenville Democrat.

STRAY TOPICS FROM LITTLE OLD NEW YORK

New York, Oct. 5.—Last year it cost the City of New York nearly nine million dollars to maintain its fire department and for the year 1913 an appropriation of more than eleven million dollars will be asked. These figures may seem enormous, but New York is a pretty big city and needs fire protection, no matter how much it may cost. During the present year 42 new fire houses have been built, and 21 of them are completed and ready for occupancy. To supply these new stations with an adequate number of men will require the addition of more than 1,000 uniformed firemen and additional fire-fighting apparatus, estimated to cost nearly $1,000,000. The contemplated addition to the New York fire department is greater in itself than the combined fire departments of Washington and Buffalo.

"Cigarettes" rhymes with "Suffragettes," but the combination of the two outside of poetry is liable to cause a serious rumpus. When the New York suffrage leaders were informed that they would be given fifteen minutes' privilege at every performance at Hammerstein's Victoria Theatre during an entire week, they put their heads together to consider how best to advertise their cause on that favorable occasion. Some one—no one quite knows who—suggested to follow the example of the English suffragettes and sell cigarettes at the theatre, with "Vote for Women" printed on the paper of each cigarette.

The suggestion appealed to the leaders and they arranged with a manufacturer of cigarettes to furnish them a good supply of neatly packed "Suffrage Cigarettes" with the slogan "Vote for Women" in the colors of the suffrage organization printed on every cigarette. The cigarettes were promptly delivered and sold like hot cakes during the week of propaganda. Everything would have gone well, had it not been for some suffragette opposed to the use of cigarettes. When she found out that her sisters made use of cigarettes to advertise the cause she was utterly shocked and filled with indignation she sat down and wrote a scathing epistle of protest to one of the morning papers. Then the trouble began. When the enormity of the offense was boldly pointed out, other suffragettes came to the conclusion that it behooved them also to be shocked or, at least, to display, for the sake of effect, a proper amount of indignation. A generous amount of indignation was thus gradually worked up and then somebody wanted to know who was responsible for this unpardonable faux pas. Of course, nobody was anxious to shoulder the blame and no one seemed to be able to remember exactly how the thing happened. Now a decidedly chilly atmosphere pervades the headquarters of the suffragettes.

The other day a rare set of knives and forks with the Crown Derby handles was offered to the owner of an antique shop on Fifth avenue. The dealer, to his surprise, recognized the set as the same which he had given as a wedding present to a friend of his several years ago. He called up his friend on the telephone and delicately asked him whether he had ever disposed of the set of knives and forks. Indignantly his friend refuted the idea and assured him that he prized the set highly and that it was safely under lock and key at his home.

When the antiquarian informed him that the identical set was then at his store and had been offered for sale, the friend of the dealer asked for a little time to investigate the matter. He took a cab, went to his winter home, which was still closed for the summer, and found that it had been visited by burglars and thoroughly ransacked.

Distrustful of savings banks ever since he lost $2,000 in a Long Island institution some years ago, a retired storekeeper of Williamsburg always carried the savings of 30 years in his pocket. The other day, when he was returning from a visit to his mother's grave, a pick-pocket removed the wallet containing nearly $7,000 in bills from the storekeeper's pocket. When the latter discovered his loss, he became so frantic that his wife had to watch him to keep him from committing suicide.

It has always been the general belief that there is some subtle bond of sympathy between twins and that their lives are linked together in some mysterious and scientifically inexplicable way. The strange circumstances surrounding the death of a pair of twins in this city recently seem to bear out that theory. In a family named Carr there were twins, a boy and a girl, a little over one year of age. The girl became sick a short time ago, while her twin brother seemed to enjoy the very best of health. A few days ago the condition of the girl became so serious that the family doctor was called. On his way to the sick room the doctor passed through the nursery, where the patient's twin brother was asleep, apparently in perfect health. The girl died an hour later, while the doctor was still in the sick room. When he passed through the nursery on his way out, the doctor was greatly shocked to find that the little boy was dead. He had died apparently without cause, at the same time as his twin sister.

In an indirect way the high cost of living has caused a great number of deaths during this summer. Finding meat and vegetables beyond their means, many poor people went out into the fields and woods to gather mushrooms for their food. The weather was very favorable for the growth of mushrooms and toadstools this summer and the poor people had little trouble in gathering a plentiful supply for their table. Unfortunately many of the mushroom gatherers could not tell the difference between certain edible mushrooms and poisonous toadstools, somewhat similar in color and general appearance. As a result hundreds of persons in all parts of the state have been poisoned by eating toadstools, and, while the number of deaths were comparatively small, there was a great deal of suffering from eating them. Twelve persons were poisoned the other day at a mushroom feast in Long Island City, and it required the efforts of several doctors to save the lives of the feasters who had partaken too liberally of the toadstools mixed with the mushrooms.

SOME GEMS FROM CLARK'S BUZZ SAW

The socialists usually indignantly deny that their doctrines teach infidelity and disloyalty to Christianity. In this connection the following items copied from Stanley Clark's paper, the Buzz Saw, indicates that at least one of their high priests, a former Methodist preacher at that, does not seem to think that the church and socialism harmonize very well. Says Mr. Clark:

Why try to prove that it is right for the workingman to have the full product of his labor by the Bible? Don't you know the preachers won't let you?

The devout man's ears are funnels leading into vacancy. Religion invented the dualism of body and soul.

God is as he has been made. His every attribute mirrors his creation. In man's own image created he him. Can you read the Bible and doubt who made God? You might as well wonder at Irish depravity while looking at a priest; or marvel at negro degeneration with a Methodist revival going on next door.

Socialism intends to organize society on principles of science. The church cannot give such a movement their indorsement.

The watch dogs of the church are the kind that bark only at those in shabby clothes.

The church has no message for the common people.

IMPORTANCE OF HEALTHY KIDNEYS

Ada Readers Should Learn to Keep the Kidneys Well.

The kidneys have a big work to do. All the blood in the body is coursing through the kidneys constantly to be freed of poisonous matter. It is a heavy enough task when the kidneys are well, but a cold, chill, fever, or some thoughtless exposure is likely to irritate, inflame and congest the work.

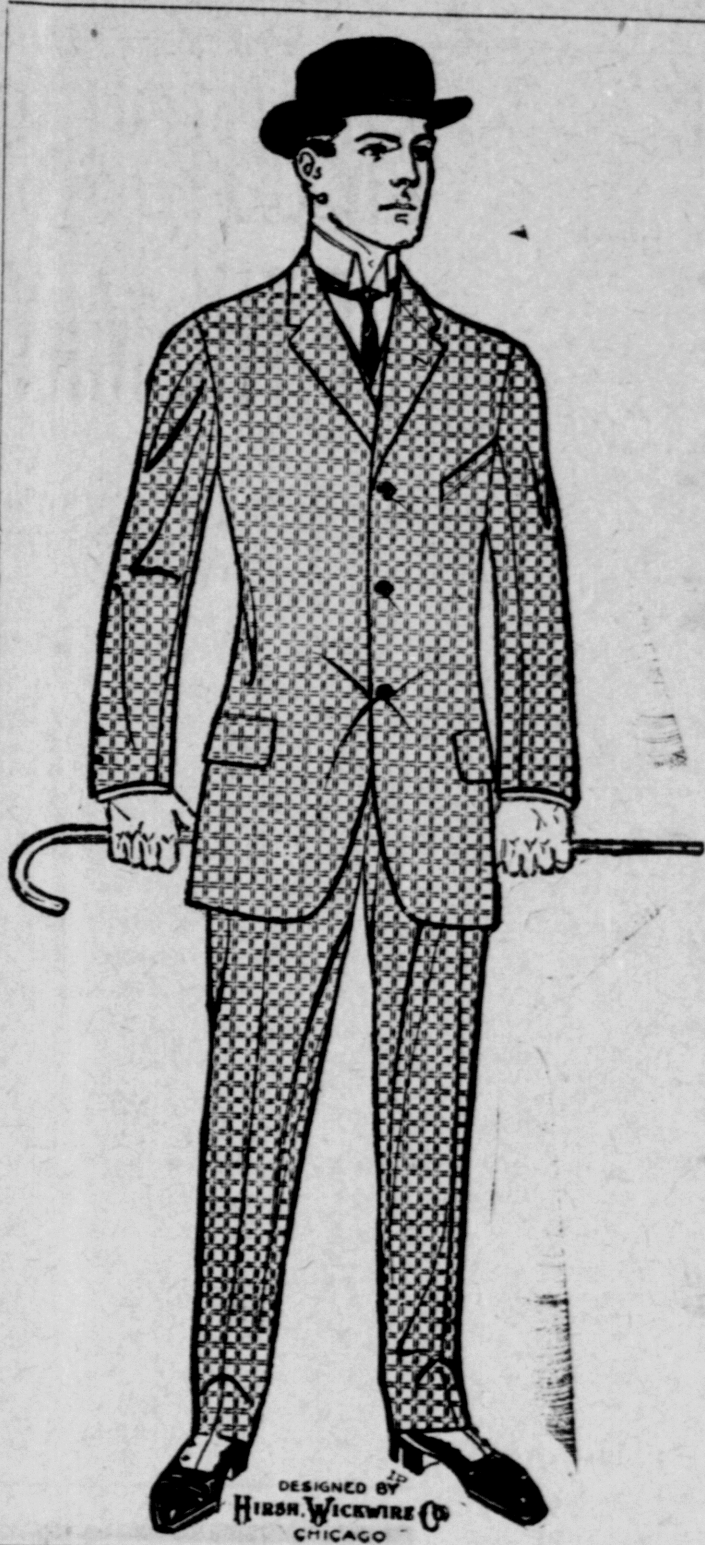

Then the aching begins, and is usually accompanied by some irregularity of the urine—too frequent passages, sediment or retention. Thousands testify to the wonderful merit of Doan's Kidney Pills, a remedy for the kidneys only, that has been used in kidney troubles 75 years. You will make no mistake in following this Ada citizen's advice.

J. W. Bowling, 112 Broadway, Ada, Oklahoma, says: "I found the use of Doan's Kidney Pills very beneficial when my kidneys were weak and I had a backache. I willingly recommend this remedy to any one having backache or kidney trouble."

On account of wishing to keep our Ice service good so that you will get your Ice in good time on the warm days, we have decided to sell our Coal at about cost for a while so as to keep our men and teams busy during what cool days we have, so that we will not have to reduce our Ice delivery service, order now and we will deliver to you as we can before the cool weather sets in. Remember that we handle the very best Coal, there is many poor mines in a district that is supposed to be good. We buy only from the best and where they prepare it best, there is a fire clay in all mines in this state, the least bit of fire clay in coal will cause it to clinker, the fire clay will get into all coal that is mined by the blasting process, we buy only machine mined coal which is the only process that will insure no fire clay, in mining with machines there is a roof and a floor left of coal and there is no way for it to get in, machine mined coal goes on the market at a much higher price than blasted coal, but we have always thought that our customers wanted the best and we have got it for them and sold it for about the same price some sells a low grade of coal for, also remember that we load our wagons with a fork which insures no slack, we can burn our slack under our boilers, and realize something out of it while it is worthless for stove use. We are the only coal dealers in town that has use for slack, what ever amount of slack you get in your coal is the real amount of shortage you have, as it is the same as no coal. We guarantee our weights, and you get 2000-pound tons from us. We have in stock Dewar Lump, and Rotary screened Nut and the best McAlester Lump. Call us up before you buy, we can save you in price and in quality of the coal. Phone 29, ADA ICE AND COAL STORAGE CO. 145-dtf

Advocate Leaves of Soap.
A chemical friend of the Scientific American suggests that a campaign be started against the common cake of soap. About 50 years ago there was sold a form of soap for travelers, consisting of a booklet, about two inches by four inches, in which small leaves of soap paper saturated with soap were bound. Each leaf contained enough soap for one washing of the hands. It is suggested that one might profitably dispense, through a penny-in-the-slot machine, a paper towel in which is folded a sheet of soap paper, for convenient use in public lavatories.

ARTESIAN WATER STRUCK ON CULLINS PLACE

This morning W. T. Tarkenton, who was drilling a well on the T. E. Cullins place, adjoining the city limits on the northeast, struck a good flow of artesian water at a depth of fifty-five feet. The water is of a very fine quality, and Mr. Tarkenton stated that the flow is much stronger than that from the Stall well, which, so far as is known, is the only other artesian well in this vicinity.

Harvesting Peanuts.

Bob Anderson, who bought one of Dr. Breco's farms east of town on the installment plan—he raising and delivering to the doctor 25 acres of peanuts for ten years—harvested and delivered his first crop this week. The peanuts are of the Spanish variety and the doctor estimates his crop at 1500 bushels and about 100 tons of hay.

They will be thrashed and sacked this week and put on the market. The hay and the peanuts will net a much larger profit per acre than most any other crop that could be planted.—Stonewall News.

HISTORY OF ROSENTHAL MURDER

Chronological outline of the famous Rosenthal murder case, in which another important chapter will be begun Monday morning, when police Lieutenant Charles A. Becker is placed on trial in New York for alleged complicity in the murder.

July 16—Herman Rosenthal, a notorious gambler who had threatened to expose an alleged connection between Lieut. Becker and New York's gambling and vice syndicate, was shot down in the glare of the lights of the hotel Metropole, within a few hours of the time he was scheduled to tell his story before the grand jury.

July 16—Within a few hours of the crime the car in which the murderers are alleged to have escaped, with William Shapiro, the driver, were arrested.

July 18—"Bald Jack" Rose, well known as the father of the famous Rosenthal, surrendered to the district attorney, to whom he is said to have confessed to having acted as Becker's collector, also giving the details of the alleged murder conspiracy and the names of those concerned.

July 21—On the strength of the statement made by Rose, "Bridge" Weber, alleged gambling house proprietor, and Sam Paul, notorious gang leader, were arrested and charged with complicity in the murder. Both are said to have admitted having an intimate acquaintance with Becker.

July 23—Harry Vallons, a gangster suspected of having been one of the occupants of the murder car, surrendered to the police.

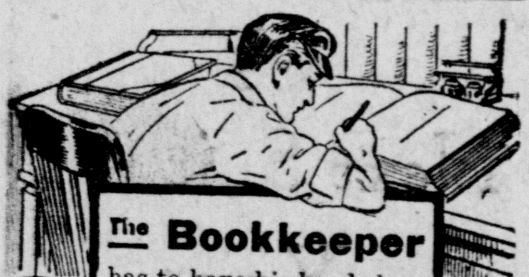

July 26—Frank Cirofici, another suspect, taken into custody.

July 26—Mrs. Rosenthal, widow of the murdered gambler, testified before the grand jury that Becker collected money from her husband, as did Rose for Becker.

July 29—Lieutenant Becker arrested and locked up on a charge of murder.

August 1—Frank Muller, alias "Whitey Lewis" one of the gangsters who fled from the city immediately after the murder, arrested in the Catskills.

August 5—Disclosures concerning alleged deposits of thousands of dollars put in banks in New York City and elsewhere by Lieut. Becker and his wife.

DR. AND MRS. R. G. SEARS ENTERTAIN AT NORMAL

Early in the week a number of invitations were issued by Dr. and Mrs. R. G. Sears bidding their friends to gather at the normal Thursday evening at a reception to be given by them.

The evening was a splendid success in every particular. The host and hostess were assisted in receiving and entertaining by Mmes. Briles, Hope, Winn Sledge and Barney. Between sixty and seventy were present. Sixteen tables were arranged for 42, and after the game had been concluded, a delightful salad and ice course was served.

Those who were fortunate enough to be present could not help feeling that it will be a fine thing for Ada if the normal is thus made the social center of the city and hoped that others will follow this splendid example of Mr. and Mrs. Sears, and the normal place for many other similar events.

"On the Moonlight Trail" is the title of one of the month's most powerful melodramas. The quick wit of a little girl saves her father's fortunes from two tramps. "The Tourists" is a laugh producer. "What the Doctor Ordered." Well, he ordered a sure cure for the blues at all events. Majestic Theatre.

Mrs. Ligon and Miss Lenore entertain Monday afternoon Mrs. M. W. Ligon and daughter, Miss Lenore entertained a number of friends at their home on East 10th street with 42. Five tables were arranged and the players spent a most delightful afternoon at the popular game. At the conclusion of the games, the hostess served delicious refreshments to their guests. All present pronounced the event a glowing success.

Reception for Teachers.
The Federated Patrons' Clubs gave a reception to the teachers of the public school Friday evening at the High school building. The News regrets that it has been unable to secure any of the particulars of it, however. This is a move in the right direction, for between the parents and teachers a tie that should be strengthened in ever possible manner, and they should meet often and become well acquainted.

The DeSota will have an unusually fine program this evening. The Rex company appears in a novel and laughable comedy, "The Ghost of a Bargain." "The Intrigue" is a military picture featuring the rascality of a Jap spy who tried to secure plans of the U. S. submarines. It's an Imp.

Buckhorn Bill Flays Socialist Doctrine
This afternoon Rev. W. D. Ingram, better known as "Buckhorn" Bill, is delivering an address on the streets on the subject of socialism. He is a past-master when it comes to handling this important subject. The News will have more to say about this address Monday.

MALARIA—BLOOD POVERTY

Malaria is a species of blood poverty known as Anaemia; the circulation becomes so weak and impure that it is unable to supply the system with sufficient nourishment and strength to preserve ordinary health. In the first stages of Malaria the complexion grows pale and sallow, the appetite is affected, the system grows bilious, and there is a general feeling of weakness. As the circulation becomes more thoroughly saturated with the malarial infection, the digestion is deranged, chills and fever come and go, skin diseases, boils, sores and ulcers break out, and the entire health becomes impaired. Malaria can only be cured by removing the germs from the blood. S. S. S. destroys every particle of malarial infection and builds up the blood to a strong nourishing condition. Then the system receives its proper amount of nutriment, sallow complexions grow ruddy and healthful, the liver and digestion are righted and every symptom of Malaria passes away. S. S. S. cures in every case because it purifies the blood. S. S. S. is a safe and pleasant remedy as well as an efficient one. Book on the blood and any medical advice free.

A Pre-nuptial Affair.

Mrs. Claude Rodarmel entertained with an elaborate linen shower on Wednesday the second of October for Miss Estelle Torbett whose marriage to Mr. E. S. Haraway occurs on the fifteenth.

The hospitable home was beautifully decorated in ferns, vines and cut flowers. Many candles added a mellow light to the happy occasion.

The guests were met at the door by Mrs. Duncan, who introduced them to the receiving line composed of Mrs. Rodarmel, Miss Torbett, Mrs. Torbett, Miss Sledge, Mrs. Maddox and Grandmother Torbett.

A unique contest was engaged in with great enthusiasm. A useful work basket was given the honoree, and the favor also a basket was won by Mrs. Browall, who very graciously presented it to one of the prospective bridesmaids, Miss Sledge.

At the close of the clever toasts which were given by Mrs. Neathery and Mrs. Browall to the bride and groom. The bride as well as the entire party was surprised by a shower of rice which was concealed in a bower of vases.

The jollity had hardly subsided when a gypsy appeared at the door and upon being admitted fell at the feet of the bride. Upon opening the pack it was found to contain a bountiful supply of linens soon to be made useful in her new home, "Fairview."

While a delicious salad course was being served, Mrs. Harriott favored the party with several choice piano selections after which the guests departed declaring Mrs. Rodarmel a charming hostess, and wishing Miss Torbett much happiness.
